

Primary Teacher

CFBL is looking to recruit a Primary teacher for the school year 2022-2023.

Start date: September 2022

Nature du contract: Permanent – full time

Line Manager: deputy Head for Primary

Housed in a listed Victorian building in the heart of London, Ofsted Outstanding-rated CFBL hosts 700 students from Nursery to Year 10 in a warm and welcoming environment. With over 35 nationalities represented in the student body, and a particular emphasis on languages and multicultural learning, CFBL promotes openness, tolerance and flexibility, and help students become citizens of the world.

Our co-educational, bilingual teaching is based on an enhanced version of the French curriculum, which fosters academic excellence and promotes the personal development of the pupils while preparing them for whatever they choose to do next, whether they decide to take the French baccalaureate, IB, A Levels or prefer another stream.

Our staff members come from a wide range of backgrounds and nationalities, bringing fresh perspectives and cultural enrichment to the learning experience, and helping to spark new ideas and foster creative collaborations. We believe that children can learn about the world inside and outside the classroom, and encourage projects and trips to develop their confidence and self-esteem. So, if you're passionate about education, open to the world and brimming with exciting ideas, we'd love to have you on board.

The role

As a primary teacher, you will:

- Coteach primary pupils in English
- Deliver instruction that supports the variability of learners
- Collaborate closely with your co-teacher to ensure that pupils have a comprehensive and varied learning experience
- Contribute more widely to the Primary team and to the school community as a whole through, for example, enrichment activities, interventions to support individuals or groups of pupils or outreach activities.
- Seek to develop your own professional practice and development in conjunction with your Head of Department
- Play an active role in departmental meetings, parents' evenings, whole school events (Open Mornings, etc)

The ideal candidate

- Has QTS / teaching qualification and ideally, experience of the French education system and curriculum
- Is passionate about education
- Has strong interpersonal skills and can build relationships and collaborate with a wide range of people.
- Is committed to their ongoing professional development
- Shares CFBL's vision of education
- Embraces developments and innovations in teaching and learning
- Is interested in the welfare and pastoral wellbeing of young people
- Is enthusiastic and positive

Salary and benefits

The school offers a generous compensation and benefits package, including:

- Competitive salary (dependent on qualifications and experience)
- 16 weeks' holiday (schools' holidays as set by the French embassy)
- Competitive employer pension contribution (8% defined contribution)
- Up to £2,000 flexible benefits to use on transportation, travel, childcare, big purchases...
- Free lunch daily (cooked on the premises)
- High-quality professional learning throughout your career with us
- Perkbox scheme (discounts at a wide range of retailers)
- Bike-to-work scheme and season ticket loan
- School fees remission
- Family friendly policies (such as enhanced maternity pay and paternal leave)
- Life Insurance & Income protection
- Health Cash Plan (opt-in)

Conditions

Safeguarding and welfare

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, and applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and an Enhanced Disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service.

Right to work in the UK

The EU's free movement rules no longer apply in the UK. European Economic Area ('EEA') nationals must be granted immigration permission to live and work in the UK. There are numerous requirements that employers sponsoring individuals under the Skilled Worker route must meet. Please let us know in your application if you would need us to support your application for a visa.
